

Purpose of Photo: SP33 is located south of Vee Canyon on a ridge overlooking the canyon. View is from a superior position. The purpose of this AL is to assess potential change in landscape character attributes of Vee Canyon following inundation of the proposed reservoir. The view being analyzed is directed to the northeast. The AL type is an LCP. Vee Canyon is considered a notable natural feature

Insert Orientation Map

Figure: X-X

| | |
|---|---|
| Analysis Location: SP33 – Vee Canyon | Centered Cardinal Direction: Northeast |
| | Type of Camera / Lens: Nikon D4 / 50mm |
| | Photo Date: May 21, 2013 |
| Photographer: E Whiteman | Time of Day: 15:55 |

Susitna-Watana Hydroelectric Project

URS Logo
AEA Logo

Note: This figure format is under development. Photographs are in draft format and subject to ongoing review and editing.